Signature Golf Course at The Cliffs, is set among thousands of acres of untouched forest and miles of pristine shoreline.

The Cliffs at Walnut Cove, just minutes from downtown Asheville, N.C., boasts a Jack Nicklaus Signature Course routed through mountain meadows, between oaks and evergreens and around streams and creeks. The southern exposure of the course offers year-round golf, and residents enjoy the convenience of the nearby city while being nestled within the natural boundaries of Pisgah National Forest and the Blue Ridge Parkway.

In addition to seven unique golf experiences, Cliffs members also have easy access to a variety of amenities, including 17 dining venues, six wellness centers, tennis courts, an equestrian center, marina, hiking trails, vineyards, beach club, even Seven communities. Seven championship golf courses. One membership. That's the beauty of The Cliffs. What's more, there's no shortage of breathtaking views and peaceful, natural retreats among The Cliffs' 20,000 acres nestled deep in the Blue Ridge Mountains in upstate South Carolina and western North Carolina. Members can choose from three distinct lifestyles in three unique settings: on the lake, in the mountains or just outside Asheville.

Lake Keowee is home to three Cliffs communities featuring courses designed by Tom Fazio and Jack Nicklaus. The Fazio-designed course at Keowee Vineyards features eight holes right on Keowee and five offering views of the Blue Ridge Mountains, and Fazio himself noted that the 17th might be the most picturesque in all of South Carolina. At Keowee Springs, Fazio's second Cliffs design, a set of family tees provides a flexibility of play. Meanwhile, The Cliffs at Keowee Falls, Nicklaus' second

Signature Golf Course at The Cliffs, is set among thousands of acres of untouched forest and miles of pristine shoreline.

In the mountains just north of Greenville, S.C. are three Cliffs communities featuring very distinct golf experiences. Glassy, The Cliffs' original course, is located atop a 3,200-foot plateau and treats golfers to spectacular 50-mile views from one of the most scenic holes in the country, while the Valley course winds its way around creeks, hillsides, lakes and forests. The newest Cliffs course is Gary Player's links masterpiece at The Cliffs at Mountain Park. This sprawling, walkable course an organic farm. Although private and secluded, the communities are only minutes away from two of the South's most vibrant cities and less than two hours from Atlanta and Charlotte. ✂
